Nature's Way Is Best.

The function strengthening and tissue building plan of treating chronic, lingering and obstinate cases of disease as pursued by Dr. Pierce, is following after Nature's plan of restoring health.

He uses natural remedies, that is extracts from native medicinal roots, prepared by processes wrought out by the expenditure of much time and money, without the use of alcohol, and by skillful combination in just the right proportions.

Used as ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, Black Cherry-bark, Queen's root, Golden Seal root, Bloodroot and Stone root, specially exert their influence in cases of lung, bronchial and throat troubles, and this "DISCOVERY" is, therefore, a sovereign remedy for bronchitis, laryngitis, chronic coughs, catarrh and kindred ailments.

The above native roots also have the strongest possible endorsement from the leading medical writers, of all the several schools of practice, for the cure not only of the diseases named above but also for indigestion, torpor of liver, or biliousness, obstinate constipation, kidney and bladder troubles and catarrh, no matter where located.

You don't have to take Dr. Pierce's say-so alone as to this; what he claims for his "Discovery" is backed up by the writings of the most eminent men in the medical profession. A request by postal card or letter, addressed to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for a little book of extracts from eminent medical authorities endorsing the ingredients of his medicines, will bring a little book free that is worthy of your attention if needing a good, safe, reliable remedy of known composition for the cure of almost any old chronic, or lingering malady.

The most valuable book for both men and women is Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. A splendid 1008-page volume, with engravings and colored plates. A copy, paper-covered, will be sent to anyone sending 21 cents in one-cent stamps, to pay the cost of mailing only, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. Cloth-bound, 31 stamps.

Attacked Westminster Confession.

Every idea of endless torment in the future State was declared to be "a rotten derelict rolling on the ocean of time" by Rev. Dr. Samuel T. Carter, who Saturday evening disembarked at New York from the Cunard line steamship Carmania, on which he had made a safe and pleasant voyage from Liverpool.

Rev. Dr. Carter, a Presbyterian clergyman for many years, has been attacking the Westminster Confession.

"There is one great dogma," said the clergyman, "that chiefly hardens men's hearts against God and veils from them His beautiful goodness, the dogma which the Confession frankly calls the endless torment of the wicked and which remains still the doctrine of the Presbyterian Church. I believe it to be, on the whole, the most pestilential error that was ever propagated, sufficient of itself to make man's life utterly miserable and to veil the whole creation in sackcloth. I believe that neither war, famine, nor pestilence has caused so much misery in the world as this single dogma, with its terror, despair, insanity, and suicide, and, beneath all, its constant brooding horror. No malignant demon could devise anything more dreadful; we should be very slow to impute it to a good God. A world of intelligent men has utterly rejected the doctrine of endless torment. Why should not the church free itself from the shame of perpetuating this remorseless cruelty?"

Rev. Dr. Carter said that although he believed there was some punishment in the future State, he did not at present wish to state his views.

Aftermath of Football Game.

The wildest, noisiest celebration of a football game between University of Chicago and Minnesota ever seen in Chicago shook the downtown hotels Saturday night. Hats were smashed and furniture broken, as usual, and in addition a party of Minnesota girls were spanked, an enthusiastic party of young men taking the girls across their knees for the purpose in the lobby of the Great Northern Hotel.

Early in the evening 20 Minnesota rooters took possession of the Great Northern lobby, dining-rooms and corridors. They marched up stairs and down, singing and shouting. Encountering another party of boys and girls from Minnesota, the leader of one side shouted:

"Let's initiate the girls," and added: "Girls, it has been decided that each of you be spanked".

Then he seized a stately blonde, carefully but firmly placed her across his knee and gave her a rousing spank; then another and a third. By this time each boy had a girl across his knees, and amidst laughter, shrieks and screams from the girls and the uproar from the gathered guests the "first degree" was given.

Then the girls attacked the boys, and in many instances administered a hearty return for the initiation they had themselves received. At the Auditorium Annex hats were smashed and the guests driven from the lobby by the pranks of the rooters.

Killed with a Hatpin.

At 1:30 o'clock yesterday morning Dr. Myles Gibbons was called to the home of Thomas Dougherty, on east Drinker street, Dunmore, a suburb of Scranton, Pa., and found Dougherty suffering from a hatpin wound in the heart. He was unconscious part of the time and growing weaker every minute. In response to questions put to him by the doctor Dougherty said he would refuse to give the name of the girl who caused the wound, as he was playing with her when the mishap occured and she was not to blame. He clung to this story until he was removed later in the day to the State Hospital, where he died 10 minutes after his admission.

Dougherty, before the arrival of the doctor, seems to have told the name of the girl who stabbed him to his sister, Mrs. John Larkin, and she informed Coroner Stein. A warrant was, therefore, issued for the arrest of Mary Burk, aged 20 years.

According to Dougherty, the stabbing with the hatpin was not done in anger. The pin went between the ribs and entered the apex of the heart, breaking into three pieces. One piece was found in the heart at the autopsy yesterday. Dougherty had spent the evening with the girl.

Heiress Elopes with Coachman.

Heiress to an estate of several million dollars, Emma Bachman Howe, 19 years old, adopted daughter of Miss Frances Howe, owner of several parcels of downtown Chicago property, eloped Saturday with a coachman named Jensen. She fled from the noted Bailey town homestead, near Chesterton, Ind. After the girl, who had been adopted from an orphanage when she was but a few years old by the wealthy spinster and Chicago property owner, was discovered with the coachman, she leaped into a buggy with him and fled across the country.

The couple were chased by employes of a nearby brickyard. The pursuers were headed by the girl's foster mother, but all were outdistanced. The girl had told Miss Howe she was going to marry the coachman. When the couple drove out of sight on the way toward Valparaiso, Ind., Miss Howe collapsed. The elopement caused a sensation throughout northern Indiana and in society circles in Chicago, where Miss Howe and her adopted daughter often visited.

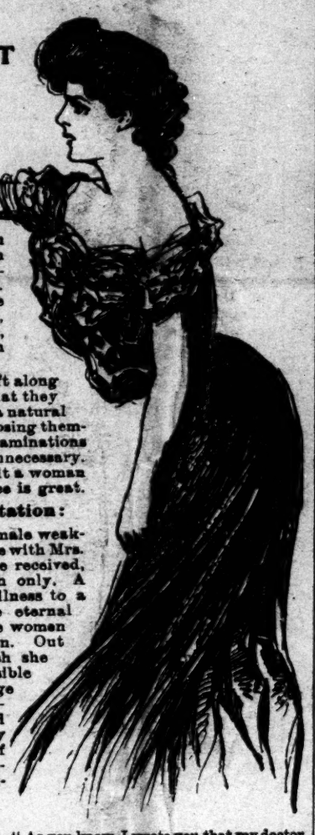
STOP, WOMAN!

AND CONSIDER THE ALL-IMPORTANT FACT



That in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are confiding your private ills to a woman—a woman whose experience with women's diseases covers twenty-five years.

The present Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, and for many years under her direction, and since her decease, her advice has been freely given to sick women.

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing full well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty impels them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and probable examinations of even their family physician. It is unnecessary. Without money or price you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is great.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation:

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established the eternal confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Out of the vast volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge that will help your case. She asks nothing in return except your good-will, and her advice has relieved thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.—Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Following we publish two letters from a woman who accepted this invitation. Note the result:

First letter.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"For eight years I have suffered something terrible every month. The pains are excruciating and I can hardly stand them. My doctor says I have a severe female trouble, and I must go through an operation if I want to get well. I do not want to submit to it if I can possibly help it. Please tell me what to do. I hope you can relieve me."—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 59th and E. Capitol Streets, Washington, D. C.

Second letter.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"After following carefully your advice, and taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I am very anxious to send you my testimonial, that others may know their value and what you have done for me.

"As you know, I wrote you that my doctor said I must have an operation or I could not live. I then wrote you, telling you my ailments. I followed your advice and am entirely well. I can walk miles without an ache or a pain, and I owe my life to you and to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I wish every suffering woman would read this testimonial and realize the value of writing to you and your remedy."—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 59th and E. Capitol Streets, Washington, D. C.

When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health so many women whose testimony is so unquestionable, you cannot well say, without trying it, "I do not believe it will help me." If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice—it is free and always helpful.

JEWELRY.

is used oftener than almost any other room in the house. That is why it should be made the most comfortable spot, and be pleasingly arranged.

Without cut glass and silverware a dining room makes little impression and is hardly home like. A few pieces tastily arranged will make a better effect than many of them placed indiscriminately.

A silver fern dish puts a finish to the table and livens up the room. A silver set is needed to decorate the sideboard. A few cut glass pieces so arranged as to contrast with the tea set will make the sideboard as it should be. The cut glass required are decanters, berry bowls and fruit dishes. The only other silver piece that should be in evidence is the candelabra.

If you want your dining room to be just so have the bread trays and other trays of silver. Even the crumb tray and scraper should be silver-plated.

The steel knives should have silver-plated handles to match the silver-plated spoons, knives and forks.

If you are not satisfied unless your dining-room is properly fitted, you are undoubtedly particular about your own person. It is just as well that you are. A little attention to your ownself begets attention from others. Wear a diamond ring or two, a locket, watch and chain. As the chain is more in evidence than the watch or the locket, you may as well wear the best there is—the guaranteed Z-K Gold Chain.

Let us fit out the dining-room as well as yourself. Prices very reasonable.

SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

MONDAY EVENING, NOV. 12, 1906.

REV. SAMUEL T. CARTER, D. D., of New York city, whose letter to the last Presbyterian General Assembly, at Des Moines, Ia., attacking the Westminster Confession as an "idol of man's creation," was killed in committee, has sent from Europe a statement in which he assails the hell of the Westminster Confession, criticises the general assembly for retaining the confession and commends the daily press for its enlightenment. It will be remembered that, while the general assembly suppressed his letter, it did not discipline Dr. Carter or dismiss him from the church for his expression of views at variance with those of the Westminster Confession. Dr. Carter, among other things, says:

A world of intelligent men has utterly rejected the idea of endless torment. Why should not the church free itself from the shame of perpetuating this remorseless cruelty? The dogma of endless torment is an old rotten derelict that has rolled on the ocean of time far too long, leaving a track of disaster and death behind it. The church owes it to itself to dynamite this miserable hulk and sink it out of sight forever.

The Greek word translated "everlasting" in the common version of the Bible has long been a matter of dispute among the learned. Many are confident it was never intended to convey the idea expressed by the word "everlasting." The editor of a well-known Greek Testament translates the words rendered, "And these shall go away into everlasting punishment; but the righteous into life eternal" (Mat. 25), as follows: "And these shall go away into a cutting off age-lasting, but the righteous into life age-lasting." Whatever may be meant by this verse, the fact remains that the word used to express the duration of the state of the blessed is employed to set forth the period of anguish to be endured by the other class.

THE belief that an immediate effect of the recent elections would be a revival among republicans of the agitation for tariff revision was greatly strengthened by statements made by Senator Cullom, of Illinois, on his arrival in Washington, Saturday. The Senator said he believed the people felt that many schedules of the tariff needed reduction, and as it would be impossible to do anything in that direction at the short session this winter it would be the part of wisdom to hold an extra session of the new Congress in the spring to be devoted exclusively to tariff revision. He thought it would be a dangerous experiment to put off action on the matter until just before or after the next presidental election. It was evident the Senator has discovered during the campaign that a respectable number of republicans in his own State think the time has come when the excessively high duties imposed by nearly all the schedules of the Dingley bill should be reduced. From the fact that Senator Beveridge, of Indiana, declared in a campaign speech immediately before election that the stand-patters must stand aside and allow the tariff to be revised, it would seem that the revision sentiment prevails in Indiana as well as in Illinois and the Northwest.

MR. LOEB, the President's secretary, has issued an order to the public that the President's private conversations must not be repeated, or words to that effect. Probably the President has been misquoted partly often; but in many instances what he objected to was that he was correctly quoted, but what he said was not intended for publication. It is bad taste, or worse, to have a conversation with the President and then repeat it, or the substance of it, or a poor recollection of it, or a willful distortion of it. "But," as says the Philadelphia Record, "Mr. Roosevelt has made more complaints of being misquoted than all the Presidents before him from George Washington down. The reason is that no other President has talked so volubly and so informally, not to say indiscretly, and has assumed so largely that his caller would use a discretion he would not use himself. The President ought not to be quoted without authority, but he also ought not to say everything that may be in his mind."

MANY are dead and scores are injured in railroad wrecks all over the country today. A wave of ruin and disaster has been sweeping from Maine to California in the last twenty-four hours and every hour brings reports of new wrecks. The sea has also its tale of disaster. Up in northeast Canada, the big steamship Kensington is pounding to pieces on the rocks at Matane. The passengers, however, were rescued. Five people were killed and 65 injured in a collision between two passenger trains on the Baltimore & Ohio at Valparaiso, Indiana. Spreading rails threw a Missouri Pacific train in a ditch near Eureka, Kansas, and twelve passengers were seriously injured. Two trainmen were killed and several passengers injured when the boiler of an express engine exploded last night at Sargent, California. A wild switch engine tore into the Michigan Central station at Detroit, today, and ripped it to pieces. Several people were injured and three people were killed.

CONGRESSMAN-ELECT WM. M. JACKSON, a millionaire, of the First Maryland district, comprising the counties of the Eastern Shore of the State, startled Baltimore Saturday by announcing that he used money to buy votes in the recent election. "It takes money to win in an election on the Eastern Shore, he said. "The precedent of spending it was not established by me. No man without money need run for Congress in the First district of Maryland, and a poor man has no chance against a rich man." And what is true on the Eastern Shore of Maryland is equally true, or is rapidly becoming so, in the other districts throughout the country, and things have come to such a pass that even lawmakers who buy elections openly boast of their traffic in votes!

THE ROOTERS who accompanied the University of Virginia team to Washington "whooped up" things in Washington late Saturday night in celebration of their victory over Georgetown, and kept the racket up until a pretty late hour. Six of the students were arrested and taken to the station house where they left $5 collateral each for their appearance in the police court. These students may have thought their escapade very funny, but they failed to realize that their disorderly conduct reflected no credit on their alma mater.

ASSISTANT POSTMASTER GENERAL MADDEN announces that all magazines and newspapers containing "coupon" advertisements shall be subject hereafter to postage of one cent an ounce, instead of the present rate of one cent a pound. The effect of the order will be the disappearance of the coupon, and this but few people will regret.

IT IS given out that before starting on his trip to Panama the President, during an informal political discussion which occurred at the White House, took occasion to reiterate his assertion that no combination of circumstances could induce him to become a candidate for re-election in 1908. Killed by a Burglar

Henry Firth Smith, 25 years old, son of Joseph Smith, a prominent and wealthy business man of Pittsburg, Pa., was shot twice and almost instantly killed at 4 o'clock yesterday morning by a burglar whom he surprised in the dining-room of his father's residence, in the east end section of the city.

That a desperate battle took place between young Smith and the burglar is evident from the disordered condition of the dining-room and kitchen of the Smith home. In addition to the two bullets which were found to have entered Smith's body, five other balls were found lodged in the floors and walls of two rooms. Three cartridges of Smith's revolver had been discharged.

Neighbors adjacent to the Smith home heard the shots and ran to their windows, but say they saw no one running from the house. Hundreds of dollars' worth of silver plate had been gathered together by the burglar, who apparently had been in the house sometime before being heard by young Smith.

The young man's father and mother were awakened by the sounds of the shots and rushed down stairs, to find their son on the kitchen floor, with two bullet holes in his body.

The crime, following a little more than a week after the murder of James A. McMillen, another wealthy business man of Pittsburg, has aroused the city, and, with a number of holdups by highwaymen during the past fortnight, city officials have been importuned for 150 more policemen to suppress the wave of crime.

The property, which has been noted in Virginia for years, and which is one of the very few old colonial mansions in that section not molested by troops during the civil war, has changed hands many times during the past 30 years, and it was not until it was purchased by Mr. Kimberly that it received any attention. Barring his republican proclivities Mr. Kimberly is a prince of good fellows and a princely estate is none too good for him.

Today's Telegraphic News

On Trial for Murder.

Herkimer, N. Y. Nov. 12.—Chester Gillette, son of a prominent Cortland family, was brought to trial today for the murder of his sweetheart, Grace Brown. The girl was found drowned in Big Moose Lake, last summer in the Adirondacks, where Gillette had taken her on a vacation. Her head was crushed, and the prosecution hopes to prove that Gillette, tiring of the girl, did away with her that he might marry a rich girl in Cortland. The autopsy on the girl showed that Miss Brown soon would become a mother.

Grace Brown worked in the Gillette shirt factory of Cortland. The factory was owned by an uncle of the defendant. The pair had been sweethearts for a year. Last April the girl's manner became depressed. She was frequently seen in earnest conversation with Gillette. On July 11 Miss Brown and Gillette appeared at Big Moose Lake in the Adirondacks. Gillette registered as "Carl Graham". Immediately he engaged a row boat, saying he desired to take photographs. He left the hotel accompanied by Miss Brown.

Twenty-four hours later the girl's body was found in shallow water on the lake's edge. The capsized boat was nearby. There was no trace of Gillette. A man was seen carrying a satchel near the Big Moose Lake by woodsmen. The autopsy told the story of a wronged woman. A strand of the girl's hair was found on an oar blade. Her skull had been crushed. Gillette was caught at Arrowhead. He admitted his identity. He said that the boat had capsized and unable to save Miss Brown he swam ashore. Gillette has been abandoned by his relatives, Gillette's parents in Michigan were converts to Dowie and gave all their property to the "Prophet."

American Federation of Labor.

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 12.—That the convention of the American Federation of Labor, which opened in this city today, will go on record in favor of a more aggressive political policy seems assured. From all parts of the country delegates are bringing in reports of success at the polls in the recent election. Most pronounced has been the success of the United Mine Workers and the Commercial Telegraphers' Union. The miners in the anthracite district of Pennsylvania have elected W. B. Wilson and T. B. Nichols to Congress and ten of their members to the State legislature. The telegraphers elected three of their members to Congress in different parts of the country, including the Fourth district of Illinois. The convention met with 1,000 delegates in attendance, including Samuel Gompers, John Mitchell and other leaders of national importance. The sessions are executive.

The Kaiser's Autocratic Regime.

Berlin, Nov. 12.—Kaiser William's methods of personal government have caused a wave of popular dissent to sweep over Germany and this dissatisfaction with his autocratic regime will be voiced in the Reichstag which opens tomorrow.

Not in years has a session opened under such inauspicious conditions. It is freely predicted that it will become known as the anti-Kaiser session. Not only socialists but conservatives are numbered among the dissenters. Within a fortnight over 1,000 newspaper articles have appeared warning the Kaiser that the Fatherland is being ruined by his autocratic policy. The press is practically unanimous on the subject.

The retirement of Prince von Buelow as Chancellor in favor of some one in touch with the twentieth century political ideals, is predicted as the first result of the anti-autocratic movement.

From South Africa.

Capetown, South Africa, Nov. 12.—Parties of armed freebooters from German African possessions are crossing the frontier to join the raiding Boer bands under Ferreira. The latter are moving along the Orange river to effect a meeting.

Latest advices announce the capture of several prisoners by the raiders. The latter are well armed, having seized quantities of arms and ammunition in the camps they looted.

Once a junction has been effected with the German freebooters, it is Ferreira's intention to move toward Kierman. His force is steadily growing and the natives flocking to join him.

A flying column of government police from the Cape and bands of armed Burghers are on their way to head off Ferreira and an engagement is imminent.

Increase in Wages.

Hazelton, Pa., Nov. 12.—The wages of the anthracite miners for November will be increased above the $4 20 basis. This is 8 per cent. higher than the October wages and as high as the rate ever was under the sliding scale.

Butte, Mont., Nov. 12.—About 10,000 men employed underground in the mines of Montana will receive an increase in wages averaging 25 cents a day, beginning November 15. A voluntary advance of all wages of men working in the Washoe and Boston and Montana smelters from $2.30 to $2.75 to $3 a day is announced. This raise will effect about 3,000 men.

Alfonso's Guard Tripled.

Madrid, Nov. 12.—King Alfonso's guard was tripled today as a result of the explosion of cartridges in the Church of St. Peters yesterday, when an attempt to assassinate him was made. The police are scouring the city for the suspected anarchists, but no clew has been discovered. A panic was caused in the church and many were injured. The city today is greatly excited. It is supposed anarchists were falsely informed that the king and queen would attend the church and arranged to assassinate Alfonso in the confusion if the explosion did not kill him.

Killed by His Wife.

Radford, Va., Nov. 12.—John W. Morler, an employe of the Pulaski Iron Company furnace, was shot and instantly killed by his wife at Pulaski this morning. The couple had words over some insurance papers which were missed from a trunk, and the wife who is high tempered and of a nervous temperament, drew a revolver and fired five shots into her husband's body, one through the heart.

Double Suicide.

Owasco, Mich., Nov. 12.—Bert Seely and his wife were found dead in bed at New Haven this morning. Seeley is the man who was suspected of killing Ed. Edgar who was shot from ambush, last week. A warrant was about to be issued for Seeley. It is supposed the couple agreed to commit suicide and took poison.

Railroad Accidents.

Laporte, Ind., Nov. 12.—Baltimore & Ohio express No. 47 westbound made up of express and passenger cars and carrying about one hundred and fifty passengers, ran into freight train No. 94, eastbound, at 3 o'clock this morning at Kinman, just west of Wellsboro, Laporte county, resulting in the death of five persons and the injury of twenty others.

San Jose, Cala., Nov. 12.—An engineer and a block signal foreman were killed, several passengers were cut by glass and otherwise injured, four cars derailed and a locomottve was blown to pieces last night as the result of an explosion that occurred at Sargent. It is thought that several tramps are dead in the wreckage. The small railway station was completely demolished and the little town was in darkness all night. Owing to this fact, the work of rescue proceeded slowly. The train had drawn into the station when it exploded. The station and four cars were burned. The force of the explosion turned over the first four cars.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 12.—A switch engine ran wild in the Michigan Central yards today and before it could be stopped, crashed into the waiting room of the Third street depot, demolishing a portion of the building and burying a number of employees in the ruins. The crew of the engine saved themselves by jumping. The first body taken out was that of George R. Booth in charge of the lost parcel department, killed by the falling bricks. A number of others are seriously and perhaps fatally hurt.

The crew of the runaway engine explain that the fog obscured the track and they were given the warning that they were in danger from an incoming passenger train. The engineer pulled the throttle wide open and with his fireman jumped, believing less harm would come by letting the engine run itself out than in a possible collision with the passenger train.

St. Louis, Nov. 12.—The Kansas Pacific Fast Mail was derailed last night at Eureka and twelve passengers injured.

Ten-hour Day Declared.

Panama Nov. 12.—The 10-hour day has been declared on the canal work for alien laborers. Americans in charge of the aliens must also work 10 hours without increase to pay. The aliens were paid for the additional two hours. Formerly all canal employes worked eight hours.

Much dissatisfaction has developed among all the men affected. It is believed here that classes of laborers will be required to work 10 hours. It is said by men high in authority that the canal cannot be built in the specified time with an eight hour day.

The commission has given a final no to the demand of the 10 different classes of skilled labor on the zone for increase in pay. Many men have quit their jobs but it is not believed that any trouble will result.

Conditions in Cuba.

Havana, Nov. 12.—For the first time since the recent revolution members of the moderate party today see a gleam of hope for success in the next presidential election. A split in the ranks of the liberal party and the lining up of two factions, one composed of white men and backers of Alfredo Zayas, and the other of negroes who pin their faith on Jos Miguel Gomez, in the cause.

United, the liberals usually outnumber the moderates and in an election would win and Cuba would be virtually under a negro government.

The trouble has resulted from a feeling among the negroes that Zayas, hitherto the leader of the party, has become friendly with the United States officials.

New England Coast Storm Swept.

Boston, Nov. 12.—The New England coast was storm swept last night from Maine to Block Island. At Highland Light on Cape Cod the wind registered 50 miles an hour. Shore fishermen came racing into the local harbor under short canvass, many of them barely escaping disaster.

On the land the storm was accompanied in some places by snow and hail. Four inches of snow fell at Rochester, N. H. The lightning struck and sunk a yacht in Providence harbor.

Strike Imminent.

New York, Nov. 12.—A general railroad strike, involving all trunk lines leading into New York, may result from the vote now being taken by the Erie Railroad firemen on the proposition of going out on strike because their demands for shorter hours and increased pay have been refused.

New York, Nov. 12.—Reports received by Chief Hannahan of the firemen in the Union from points along the Erie Railway today were to the effect that the men had voted practically unanimously to strike if the company failed to meet their demands.

Assaulted on the Highway.

While John Turner and Misses Bethenia Ashby and Minnie Burke were returning from a social gathering at the home of B. M. McGee at Winston-Salem, N. C., Saturday night, they were held up at an isolated spot on the public road by unknown parties, the real purposes of whom were never asserted.

One man attempted to hurl Turner from his buggy, but was knocked down by the escort of the two young women. Turner then laid the whip to his horse and drove off rapidly, having the safety of the girls in his mind and knowing that singly he was no match for the several assailants against him.

One of the assailants fired upon the fugitives several times, one ball taking effect in Miss Ashby's back, one lodged in her neck, while another cut off one of her fingers. Neither Turner nor Miss Burke was injured.

Miss Ashby was reported to be resting comfortable last night, although her condition is regarded as serious.

Domine Enjoined from Marrying.

The most remarkable legal proceeding ever instituted at Rogers, Ark., was the action commenced Friday by the relatives of Rev. E. B. Real, an 81-year-old Methodist minister, superannuated, wherein the County Court was asked to issue an injunction restraining him from marrying Mrs. Jane Salisbury, a buxom widow of 51. The plaintiffs in the case set forth that Rev. Real "was in feeble health and not able to marry," and that he was otherwise disqualified from entering the marital state.

The case was argued at some length. The court took the matter under advisement over night and Saturday rendered a decision enjoining the reverend gentleman from assuming a helpmate in this county.

Vesuvius.

At noon on Saturday Mount Vesuvius and the surrounding villages were shaken by a kind of earthquake, which was accompanied by detonations and followed by a considerable fall of ashes. The phenomenon caused great alarm. Investigation showed that part of the crater of the volcano had fallen in.

Slight detonations were heard yesterday, but the people are reassured, and in long processions, carrying images of the Madona and the saints, they are re-entering their villages. In the churches yesterday the people returned thanks for their escape from the dangers of an eruption.

Killed by a Locomotive.

Wm. E. Fuller a car inspector in the Potomac freight yards north of this city, jumped from the train known as the "annex," which carries the railway employes to and from their work, about 5:30 o'clock yesterday morning, near the St Asaph crossing, and was struck by a Southern Railway freight locomotive, "light," in charge of Engineer Hamilton and instantly killed. Fuller jumped directly in front of the locomotive, which was going north on the adjoining track, and his skull was crushed by the impact. His remains were taken to Washington. Fuller was married. He was 42 years old.

Dr. Ashton, county coroner, summoned a jury and began an inquest yesterday. Several persons testified, among them being the crew of the train on which Fuller was riding just before the fatal accident. The witnesses said that they had heard no whistle or sound of a bell from the engine until it was almost upon Fuller, and when it was too late for him to escape. The engineer and fireman, who were in the cab, were not present at the session of the jury, but will be summoned to to testify next Sunday.

Twenty years ago yesterday Fuller's father was struck by a train on the same railroad and narrowly escaped instant death, but was so seriously injured that he was a cripple for life.

Pretty Wedding.

A pretty morning wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Boggess, Wednesday, Nov. 7, when their daughter, Julia Louise, was united in marriage to Mr. Marvin Demaine, of Alexandria. Only relatives and a few intimate friends were present at the ceremony which was performed by Rev. W. I. Gladiab, of the New Jerusalem church. The house decorations were potted plants, palms and flowers. The bride, who is a fair and lovely girl, looked charming in an empire gown of white silk with a veil of tulle, and carried a bouquet of roses. Miss Myrta Calderwood rendered the bridal music in a delightful manner. Following the service a dainty wedding breakfast was served the guests, and amid showers of rice and many good wishes Mr. and Mrs. Demaine, who are held in the highest regard by a wide circle of friends, left on the K & M. train for a honeymoon in Pittsburg and other eastern points.—[Middleport Correspondent, Pomeroy, Ohio, Leader.

[The groom is a son of Mr. William Demaine, of this city, and has many friends here.]

The Churches Yesterday.

A special series of vesper services was opened yesterday at St. Mary's Church, when a large congregation listened to a sermon by Rev. Father Orosz, of the Apostolic Mission House, Brookland, D. C. The services will be continued for some time at the same hour Sunday evenings, the sermons being delivered by Paulist Fathers of Brookland. Rev. Dr. H. P. Naylor, of Washington, preached at the evening services at Trinity M. E. Church, and the services both morning and evening at the First Baptist Church were conducted by Rev. William L. Wyatt, an evangelist. The pastor, Rev. Dr. W. F. Fisher, is in Richmond as a delegate to the Baptist general assembly of the State. In the Second Presbyterian Church Rev. Dr. Gordon occupied the pulpit in the morning, and Rev. Dr. Miller at night. Rev. Dr. Walker preached at Christ Church in the morning.

Mildred and Rouclere Co.

The Mildred and Rouclere Co., which will give a performance at the Opera House tonight, is one of the best companies on the road. The company, besides the well known Mildred and Rouclere, presents some of the best specialties ever seen in this city. Henry Rouclere, the magician, is a success in his profession. Aside from the mystery of his performances, his breezy talk and bright way of introducing subjects has always been as pleasant to his audiences as any of the items of his clever programme. Every single feature in the performances of Mildred and Rouclere is in line with the requirements of polite society. There is not a dull moment in these brilliant performances. The show is one of mystery and fantasy seasoned with delightful comedy. Every detail of scenic and stage investiture is used.

Second Presbyterian Church.

Rev. Drs. Gordon and Miller conducted the services in the Second Presbyterian Church yesterday the former preaching in the morning and the latter at night. At the morning service a letter from Rev. W. H. T. Squires, of Bristol, Va., was read in which the reverend gentleman formally declined the call recently extended him to become the pastor of the Second Church. Another congregational meeting will be held on Sunday, the 25th instant.

Police Court.

There was but one case on the docket of the Police Court this morning, that of Nelson Welford, colored, who was arrested last Thursday by Officers Knight and Lyles charged with disorderly conduct and fighting. He was fined $10.

The police report the city as having been unusually quiet during the past few days. No warrant has been applied for since the 9th instant.

After the transaction of some routine business and the entering of some minor orders court adjourned till Saturday.

Personal.

Mayor Waller, of Front Royal, went hunting Friday and Saturday of last week, taking as his companion ex-Judge J. K. M. Norton, of Alexandria. They either got so much game, or got lost, is why we had not heard from them Saturday evening.—[Warren Sentinel.

Mrs. Dabney Herndon is visiting Mrs. A. B. Botts, in Fredericksburg.

Rev. Dr. Cornelius Walker, who forty-five years ago was rector of Christ Church, preached an impressive and instructive sermon in that church yesterday. Since the doctor's rectorship of that church wonderful changes have taken place in its congregation and there are few living now who sat under his ministry. Dr. Walker was for many years a professor at the Theological Seminary, but for years past he has resided in Washington.

T. Smith shot and killed by Johnson on the opposite side of the street. The Johnson woman was fined $5 and sent to jail for six months for assault on the officer. Gertrude Robinson was committed to the same institution for the same period for unlawful cohabitation.

The report that Johnson, the murderer of Mr. Smith, had been located in Danville, turns out to have been incorrect.

King & Son to collect an alleged debt of $112, was taken in custody yesterday and placed in charge of the city sergeant as he was unable to furnish bond. He later, however, procured security and was released.

The weather yesterday during the greater part of the day was rainy and cold. Late in the afternoon the wind changed from the east to the west, when the mercury continued to descend. Clearing weather followed early in the night. There was but little animation on the streets during the day, owing to the uncomfortable conditions prevailing without, and there was a falling off in church attendance. The weather today has been fair and cool.

The President's Message.

The following, it is said, will be some of his recommendations.

Government supervision, by license or otherwise of all corporations (besides railroads) engaged in interstate business.

Federal legislation to correct and reduce evils of divorce.

Publicity of campaign expenditures and inhibition against corporation contributions.

Greater protection of railroad passengers and employes by adoption of block system, and eight-hour day for employes.

Exclusion of undesirable European immigration.

A more elastic currency system to prevent monetary stringencies.

Revision of the tariff will not be recommended.

James J. Hill, president of the Great Northern Railroad, was the guest of honor at the banquet of the Merchants' Club in Chicago Saturday night and delivered an extended address upon "Chicago's Interest in Reciprocity with Canada." He wants a canal to rival the Mississippi and urged a waterway from the west to the gulf. He declares the railroads cannot handle the prosperity of the United States and calls for a 15-foot-deep canal from St. Louis to New Orleans. He favors free trade or liberal reciprocity with the Dominion of Canada to enlarge markets.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Nov. 12.—The news published Saturday in regard to Secretary Shaw's policy made the money market the principal factor of the trading this morning. As the first hour progressed selling commenced and a downward movement prevailed in all parts of the room. London was a seller and helped depress prices in the first hour.

Female Weakness

"Last Fall," writes Mrs. S. G. Bailey, of Tunnelton, W. Va., "I was going down by inches, from female disease, with great pain. After taking Cardui, Oh! My! How I was benefited! I am not well yet, but am so much better that I will keep on taking Wine of Cardui till I am perfectly cured."

Despite the envious attacks of jealous enemies and rivals, Cardui still holds supreme position today [as in the past 70 years] for the relief and cure of female diseases. It stops pain, tones up the organs, regulates the functions, and aids in the replacement of a misplaced organ.

The Perverse Golf Ball.

A collector of evidence on the subject maintains learnedly that the golf ball is the most perverse of human institutions. Here is a list of strange lies noted by a follower of the ancient game: In another player's pocket, where it had dropped after traveling 200 yards; in a cow's mouth; on the roof of a clubhouse; behind the glass protecting a painting hanging on a cottage wall; in a clump of daisies, which it so resembled that it was not found for an hour. When it fell in the cow's mouth the frightened animal galloped 276 yards nearer the hole and then restored the ball to its owner. He promptly claimed to have driven it 397 yards and the right to play it from where it lay.

An Ancient English Workhouse.

In the records of St. Thomas hospital, London, is an entry of the year 1570 to the effect that "in consideration of the hote tyme of the yere" the poor be allowed "every one a day three pyntts of Bere for two months," a quart at dinner and a pint at supper, and at the end of two months return to "there olde ordinary allowance, wyche is one quarte." The food at this ancient workhouse was to be dealt with as liberally as the drink. The almoner and steward were to "bye no byffe but of the best, without bones and in speciall without the marybon, and none other to be bowght."

Professional Dignity.

"What wages do you expect?" asked Mrs. Randolph of Aunt Phronie, who had come to hire as cook.

"Well, Ah tell you. Ef Ah cooks an' waits on de table, too, Ah 'spects $2 ebery week Ah lives, b-u-t ef yo' all has family reach at de table an' Ah jes' hab ter cook, den Ah charges er dollar an' fo' bits."—Pittsburg Dispatch.

This Is Different.

How to Be Beautiful.

"What do you do to keep so beautiful?" they asked the butterfly.

"I? I do nothing," she replied.

Postmaster Robbed.

G. W. Fouts, Postmaster at Riverton, Ia., nearly lost his life and was robbed of all comfort, according to his letter, which says: "For 20 years I had chronic liver complaint, which led to such a severe case of jaundice that even my finger nails turned yellow; when my doctor prescribed Electric Bitters; which cured me and have kept me well for eleven years."
